“Committed to Caring, Stronger by Sharing, Forging Partnerships for a Brighter Tomorrow”

Energy and Excitement Build Toward Summit!

Excitement is building as preparations for the Upper Perkiomen Valley Community Services Coalition Summit are well under way.

Representatives from eleven local and regional organizations (listed below) have come together in planning this community wide event. There have been four Learning Events held during the summer to bring together board, staff, and critical volunteers of the organizations to get to know one another, establish a greater understanding of each others' organizations, and communicate common ground and strengths.

During the Learning Events, meaningful personal stories and experiences from personal interviews were shared. We learned that we have common ideals among our organizations and strong feelings about where we live and want to have a say and impact on the direction and future of our valley. The information and data from the learning events will be used during the Summit for further exploration and discovery.

Completing Your Community Interviews

Thank you to all of you that attended any of the four Learning Events: May 27, June 23, and August 4 morning or afternoon. Please schedule, complete, and submit your interviews by September 10, 2010.

You may submit the interview electronically to Leon Edelman: lfedelman@me.com or send to:

Upper Perk Chamber of Commerce
301 Main Street
East Greenville, PA 18046
Attn: Leon Edelman

More Voices Make a Richer Summit Sound!

The Upper Perkiomen Valley Community Services Coalition (UPVCSC) is calling all its board members, staff, and critical volunteers to attend the summit to explore new ways of delivering services.

The call for attendance at the summit goes beyond these groups. Concerned citizens from other community based organizations are being invited to attend as well as representatives from local and regional municipal, governmental, and business organizations.

All are needed to join together to honor the past, explore the possibilities, and plan for the future.
